Peter, here's word from the woods!

Moose Head Lake. Maine.

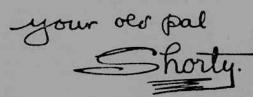

Certainly slipped on not tipping you that mr. Bacon invited me to join his shooting party up here. arrived at his Northeast Carry camp at sunset yesterday, and a riot started before we squared up to the venison steak! Listen, old bull pup-my tales short!

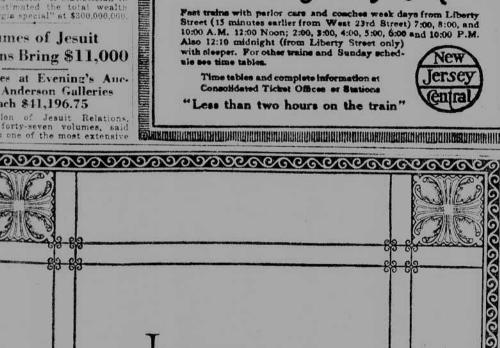

Bleak Nison, chief guide, while unpacking, made the terrible Government in transit! Never heard such a howl as the whole outfit set-up! Nixon swore in Indian-plus-canner! Just wouldn't be pacified! Bleak's been rooting for Camels since November 1915. Says there never was such smoothness, or refreshing flavor, or wild body in a cigarette as Camels provide! (Pete, Bleak is o.K. on that!) While the row was on what does Nijon do but hop into his Canox a I disappear into the depths of the dark, dank night!

about three this morning there was a roar such as no man Fluer heard in the wild woods! It was Nixon yelling like a double-decked bull moose! That bird had crossed the lake, spicked up a trail and beat it to a little way-back store where he got the boss out of bed and made him come across with the Camels he had! The storekeeper Kicked like a handfull "of ces = but, Bleak always gets what he goes after! It's the nerve, old tooth! and, now we're all filled with the milk of human Kindness and Camel Contentment! We'll get game!

Peter, think of digging up a bunch of Camels in the depths of Maine's densest woods! and, that's the way it is all over the U.S.A! Moure never out of luck when you smoke Canels! Peter, old hub, I've spoke = as the camp cook puts it!
